

- programs on one campus; Kealing students and staff are working to broadcast a profile of the unique Kealing campus.
- x Curriculum coordinator at Kealing the option to move the magnet program from the Kealing campus undermines the vision for Kealing; although there are challenges with co-locating two programs, the staff takes them on every day; advanced academics will not thrive in isolation, students need to learn from each other.
 - x Magnet Director at Kealing the students learn from each other; request that FABPAC not split the school programs; the school capitalizes on opportunities for social and emotional learning experiences; the dual campus is worth the challenges that come with it.
 - x LASA CAC member there are conflicts between LBJ and LASA; supporting LASA to the ALC campus due to its central location and opportunities for expansion; an(n)3(a)c6ansio(ee)-3
