LASA parent need a central location; current #1 grader has a 3-hour bus ride every day, resulting in a 14-hour day when he has after-school activities; need a more equitable location so more students have the ability to attend LASA.

Original LC Anderson alum the alumni association developed three proposals for FABPAC and Board consideration; the building should be utilized to enhance the neighborhood and bring the community together; it should continue to serve east Austin; the building means something to the alumni.

How does a new middle school at Mueller impact the surrounding middle schools?

FABPAC agreed with the concept of the target utilization plan, and will discuss it in more detail at a future meeting.

Sanchez Elementary

FABPAC discussed whether the timeframe for Sanchez should move from years 12 to 16. The Alternative Learning Center is no longer an option for the Sanchez site. FABPAC tabled this discussion until the options for ALC can be discussed.

Ridgetop Elementary

The & W recommendation to consolidate Ridgetop into Reilly was discussed. One member pointed out that Ridgetop does not meet the consolidation criteria, and therefore should not be considered for consolidation. This was acknowledged, and it was explained the rationale for the consolidation was to
